

Enactus Ireland Donor Charter

As an organisation with Charitable Status, Enactus Ireland aim to comply with the ICTR's Guiding Principles for Fundraising. Enactus Ireland does not fundraise from the general public. Our pledge is to treat all our donors and supporters with respect, honesty and openness.

We commit to being accountable and transparent so that donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in Enactus Ireland.

All donations will be used for their intended purposes.

We commit that you, our donors and prospective donors will:

- Be informed of the organisation's mission, and of the way the organisation intends to use donated resources.
- Be informed of the identity of those serving on the organisation's governing board, and that the board will exercise prudent judgement in its stewardship responsibilities.
- Have access to the organisation's most recent financial statements.
- Be assured your gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.
- Receive appropriate acknowledgement and recognition.
- Be assured that information about your donation is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law.
- Expect that all relationships with individuals representing the charity will be dealt with professionally.
- Have easily available the agreed procedures for making and responding to complaints.
- Have the opportunity for any names to be deleted from mailing lists and to be informed if the organisation intends to share the mailing lists with third parties.
- Receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers to questions you might have of the organisation.
